

A Blessing of Love for Lavender, my angel-face, my soul:

By Cantor Lauren Adesnik

Written on T'u b'Av for my daughter Lavender

Indescribable.

You are a whole world created unto your own.

You are radiance,

You-our- golden light

Your sweetness, your soul emanates

Your joy, you are Joy-

It pours from your whole being

Like silk water

Everything you are is infinite possibility

a sacred miracle

a blessing

Everything you are is infinite gift

Infinite love

Sustaining love- nourishing even more than the purest well on earth

I find myself inextricably tied to you-

Do you feel that too?

Wondrous spirit,

Our souls are truly connected through generations

My history now your history

My breath is your breath, my sustenance, yours.

You are the dream fulfilled after years of Heart-breaking and heart-aching.

Your luscious healing fills my soul.

The piece of me that lies within you is the most delicious love

A blessing of protection and wisdom

A prayer for Emet v'Emunah:

That Truth and Faith builds your foundation

B'Ahavah, may you always feel our loving arms embrace:

V'ruach: may you always feel God's spirit whisper at your back

And know that our love is your Sukkat Shalom- your shelter of peace

And know that you have been very loved since time's inception.

This is the prayer, the blessing, the heart, the house, the shelter we build for you in love
